

Sankara Nethralaya Hosts Event in Fremont, Calif.

At the Sankara Nethralaya awareness event in Fremont, Calif. (l-r): Dr. Jacob Eapen, Dr. Tarun Sharma, Mahesh Bajoria, Dr. Deepak Sachdev and Roger Bakshi.

Dr. Tarun Sharma of Sankara Nethralaya, Chennai, held an awareness and fundraising event at the residence of Fremont-based attorney Mahesh Bajoria Oct. 25.

Sankara Nethralaya is a non-profit charitable organization that has eye hospitals throughout India. It was founded by Dr. Badrinath along with a group of philanthropists.

Sharma gave a presentation about the current activities and future plans of Sankara Nethralaya in India.

A new six-storey hospital with state-of-the-art facilities was opened recently in Kolkata.

Sankara Nethralaya has received wide recognition and numerous awards including Corporate Citizen award from the government of India

Sankara Nethralaya is also involved in extensive educational, training and research activities in medical science.

Sankara Nethralaya is looking for donors as well as people interested in charity and service to mankind.

Funds can be donated through Sankara Nethralaya Ophthalmic Mission Trust Inc., a 510 (c)(3) registered organization in the United States. All donations are 100 percent tax exempt.

Interested readers can get more information at <http://www.sankaranethralaya.org/> or at <http://www.omtrust.org>